

Kendyktepa

The sight is located in a flood zone of Tuyabuguz water reservoir (at Tashkent Sea) as a piece of an island. It dates back to the II millennium BC up to 12 century AD. The only monument of Tashkent region Burgutlykskoy, archaeological monument of culture of the 1st millennium BC, studied by archaeologists. Excavations were carried out in 1970-72. There are favorable conditions for developing tourism infrastructure right on the shores of Akhangaran river, coast are well-planned, recreation area -rest houses public and private are there.

